FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. All Quiet on the 28th-Our Losses in Thursday's Fight - An Escape from Petersburg-The Rebel Leaders Desperate by Reason of the Failure of Their Invasion Scheme to Draw Grant's Army.

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.] A letter from the Army of the Potomac, dated August 28th, evening, says to-day not a gun was fired from daylight to dark and up to this hour, 9 p. m., there have been very few reports. It was the most quietday we have had in four weeks.

Our loss in Thursday's fight is ascertained to be about 2,000 men in the aggregate and nine guns-four of Brown's Rhode Island, four of Sleeper's Massachusetts and one of McKnight's battery of light artillery.

The statement is made by request, that it was the 197th Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteer Infantry instead of the 104th New York, as reported in some of the newspapers, which captured the battle-flag of the 18th North Carolina in the fight of the 19th, and the party who made the prize was the color-bearer of the regiment, private Hattenstein, of Company C. An English gentleman, Edwin Wallace, swam the Appomattox last night and escaped to our lines. He has resided in Petersburg since the war began, and represents the prospects of the Confederacy as becoming more gloomy than ever. The leaders are rendered desperate because of the miscarriage of their scheme to draw General Grant hence by invading Pennsylvania. Mr. Wallace lost his wife and child in Petersburg, a short time ago. They were killed by the explosion of one of our shells, which entered his house. Three deserters also got in last night. They state that they were paid off and discharged a short time ago from Col. Crawford's (Union) Third Tennessee, hundred day's regiment, and while on their way home, were captured, with seventeen others, by General Weller's cavalry, and forced into the rebel ranks, after being robbed of all their money and clothing. They have no idea of what became of the other seventeen. They were separated at Lynchburg, whither they were brought from the place of their capture in irons. They seem very indignant at the treatment they have received, and were auxious to take the oath of

FROM THE FRONT.

The mail steamer Dictator arrived here this morning at 6% o'clock from City Point. She reports all quiet since the fight at Reams' Station up to the hour at which she left, (yesterday morning at 10 o'clock,) with the exception of the usual picket firing and an occasional artillery duel. On Sunday an attack on our pontoon bridge on the Appomattox, at Broadway Landing, was anticipated. Two brigades of colored troops and several batteries were dispatched to that point on a double-quick, but no rebels made their appearance. The Dictator brought up the 5th and 6th New Jersey regiments, their term of service having expired. These men have seen hard service, and are much reduced in numbers.

RATHER BE HUNG THAN GO WITH THE REBELS.

We hear that during the late visit of the rebels to Hagerstown, Md., they proceeded to the county jail and released therefrom Park Cramer, who was confined there for deliberately shooting Victor Wright during a quarrel between the parties about a woman kept by the latter. When the rebels left Hagerstown they took Cramer with them, but on reaching Williamsport he deserted them and returned to Hagerstown, where he presented himself at the jail to the county sheriff and asked to be recommitted, asserting that he would "be d-d if he would go with such a set of infernal cutthroats." Cramer was accordingly assigned to his old quarters, and in November will be tried upon the charge of murder.

FROM ALBEMARLE SOUND.

The U. S. steamer Tacony, Capt. Tuxton, arrived yesterday at the Navy Yard from Albemarle Sound, N. C., where she has been on duty for the past six months. She brings no special news from that quarter. The Rebel Ham Albemarle keeps out of sight and danger, but our boats are fully prepared should she show herself. Some of them since the encounter between the Sassacus and the Rebel Ram have been provided with an iron prow with which to meet her.

Among her officers is Ensign Somers, who was on the Sateite in July, '62, when she was captured by the Rebels near the mouth of the Rappabannock, and who was badly wounded while resisting the enemy.

PENSION AGENT AT COLUMBUS, OHIO. Jos. W. Dwyer, Esq., late chief cierk of the subsistence division of the Third Auditor's office, has been appointed Pension Agent for the Columbus, Ohio, district, and will enter upon his new duties on September 4. He has filed his bond for $200,000 in the office of the Second Comptroller. Mr. Andrew Cauldwell has been appointed to Mr. Dwyer's position in the Third Auditor's office.

AN OFFICER SENT TO THE DRY TORTUGAS. Lieut. Wm Thomas, of the 1st Maryland Veteran Volunteer regiment, who was tried by a general court-martial upon the charge of being absent from his command without leave, and sentenced to be cashiered and confined for one year at hard labor on some Government fortification, was taken from the Old Capitol yesterday and sent to the Dry Tortugas. A REBEL OFFICER COMMITTED TO THE OLD CAPITOL

Gen. Patrick, Provost Marshal General of of the Army of the Potomac, on Sunday forwarded to this city as a prisoner of war, First Lieutenant Conner, of Jeff. Davis' Legion. The prisoner was committed to the Old Capi-

RETURNED .- Col. John E. Wheeler, ex-Consul to Nicaragua, and of fillibuster note, who has been sojourning in Dixie for some time, has returned to Washington.

PERSONAL .- General Butler has not yet arrived in New York, it see sy the New York papers, but is soon a pected there.

FINANCY AL. - The New York Post of yesterday er, ening says:

the glorious news from Mobile this morning, and the evident decadence of the rebel cause, have produced a decided sudden fall in gold and in agricultural produce. Flour is down 10 cents, and pork 50 cents per barrel. Gold opened at 256 and after selling down to 242%, recovered to 244, and on the confirmation of the news of the capture of Fort Morgan it went down to 239.

The Commercial Advertiser says: The gold market is unsettled and again lower. Various reasons, political and military, are assigned for the decline, but the powerful reason appears to be a financial one. The ex-port of gold has fallen to a merely nominal amount, and while the exports have been steadily increasing, the imports have declined, politing to a protracted reduction of the exports of specie. At the same time, the payment of interest on the September and November bends, is supplying sufficient for the require-ments of the Customs duties. For the time, therefore there is a considerable surplus of gold over the demand, and the price naturally decines. With the prospect of this condition of the market being more or less protracted, it is quite possible that a further decline may be realized; and should any important military success be achieved, the probability would be really strengthened.

RETREAT OF GEN. BARLY. Pursuit by Gen. Sheridan-The Enemy

Overtaken-Cavalry Skirmishing. [Despatch to Philadelphia Inquirer.] HARPER'S FERRY, Aug. 29 —The advance of Gen. Speridan yesterday was with nearly his entire force, the reconnoissances of Saturday afternoon having demonstrated that the enemy had retired from his front.

He made immediate preparation for following them, and the march began at daylight on Sunday morning. The infantry of Generals Wright, Crook and Emory took the direct road to Charlestown from our position at Halltown, and the cavalry under Gen. Torbert pursuing several roads leading southwestwardly from Shepherdstown, but all converging towards Winchester.

The march during the entire day was slow and cautious, a strong skirmish line being all the time displayed, and both flanks kept well covered, but none of the enemy were met with until late in the afternoon, when, having overtaken his rear guard just beyond Charlestown. on the Smithfield road, some little skirmishing ensued, but nothing of any moment. Some few prisoners being taken, it was ascertained that Early's main force had retired on the Smithfield road, and that he had halted for the night at that hamlet. General Sheridan consequently ordered a halt two miles beyond

Charlestown and camped for the night. In the meantime General Torbert, moving in the same general direction, upon roads to the right of Sheridan, encountered the enemy's cavalry at Bunker Hill, and a sharp fight ensued, the particulars of which have not yet come in, but the advantage remained with Torbert. This morning, up to 11 o'clock a. m., all was quiet in front. General Sheridan remaining in the position assumed last night, and the enemy is still understood to be at Smith-

Rumors were current in our camp this morning that Early had been ordered to Richmond with his main force, but was traceable to no authentic source, while it is certain that Smithfield is far from the direct road from Charlestown to the rebel capital. Early's last movement is considered here to be no declaration of purpose to abandon the Shenandoah Valley.

MARYLAND CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. -In this Convention, on Saturday, it was: Resolved, That in view of the uncertain condition of affairs in this State, owing to the possibility of an invasion by the public enemy, which may interfere with the expression of the popular will on the day to be fixed for voting on this Constitution, that this Convention, when it adjourns without day, will be adjourned subject to the call of the President, and, in case of the death or disqualification of the president, (H. H. Goldsborough,) Frederick Schley, of Frekerick county, Joseph B. Pugh, of Cecil county, Henry Stockbridge, of Balti-more city, William T. Purnell, of Worcester county, be and they are hereby authorized, in the order in which they are named, to act as president and call the Convention together. The majority of the committee on provisions and ordinances made a long report, embracing, among other provisions, the right of soldiers in the field to vote for or against the new Constitution, for President, member of Congress, &c. The report also directs that the Governor shall, within five days after the adjournment of the Convention, order an election to be held on the 12th of October, for the adoption or rejection of the new Constitution. The minority of the committee made a report protesting against the right of the soldier to vote in the field, and also against voters being required to take the oath prescribed in the Constitution.

A SSISTANT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, FORAGE AND BIVER TRANSPORTATION SEVENTH STREET WHARP, WASHINGTON, D. C., August 25, 1864.

CIRCLAR.

In accordance with instructions from Brigadier General D. H. Rucker, Chief Quartermaster, Depot of Washington, I have placed schooners at Upper and Lower Cedar Points, in the positions occupied by the light boats, previous to their destruction by the rebels.

From sunset until sunrise a light will be swang from each of the schooners. The reason given by captains of vessels, chartered and owned by the United States Quartermaster Department, for anchoring in the Petomac river at night, was, that they feared that they would run their vessels aground if they attempted to run past the shoals after dark. The lamps placed on the schooners will give a light sufficiently strong to enable all pilots to pass up and down the river with safety, provided they govern themselves by the charts provided by United States Coast Survey.

From and after this date, no vessel propelled by steam will be allowed to anchor, excepting in such weather as by running the loss of the vessel or cargo might be endangered.

All masters of vessels are directed to report any neglect or the part of the parties on board of the light schooners, in not keeping their lights burning at all hours of the night.

A copy of this circular will be kept posted in the pilot house of every vessel owned and chartered by the Government, plying on the Potomac river.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS. THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

To-day's Proceedings-Governor Seymour Permanent President. CHICAGO, Aug. 30 .- The National Democratic Convention re-assembled at ten o'clock this morning. The attendance both inside and outside the wigwam, was even greater than yesterday. Immediately after the Convention was called to order, prayer was offered by Bishop Whitehouse, of Illinois. Mr. Hughes, Chairman of the Committee on Organization, reported that the Committee had unanimously agreed upon Horatio Seymour as the permanent President of the Convention. Applause greeted the announcement and the report was adopted by acclamation.

[SECOND DISPATCH.] The report of the committee on organization was read and adopted by acclamation. The resident is Horatio Seymour, and Vice Presidents Joseph Chase, of Maine: J. W. Sullivan, of New Hampshire; E. D. Beach, of Massa-chusetts; D. H. Smalley, of Vermont; George Taylor, of Connecticut; Alfred Anthony, of Rhode Island; Andrew J. Cobb, of New Jersey; and Gideon J. Tucker, of New York.

When quiet was restored, Mr. Seymour proceeded to address the Convention. Mr. Seymour said: Gentlemen of the Convention, I cannot foretell the resolutions and action of this Convention, but I say every member of it loves the Union, desires peace and will uphold Constitutional freedom. While the resolutions and action of this Convention are of the utmost importance, there are additional reasons why the Democratic party should be restored to power, and they are great reasons. The Democratic party will restore the Union, because it longs for its restoration. It wil bring peace, because it loves peace. It will bring liberty to our land, because it loves liberty. It will put down despotism, because it hates ignoble tyranny, which now degrades the American people. Four years ago a convention met in this city, when our country was peaceful, prosperous and united.

Its delegates did not mean to destroy our Government, to overwhelm us with debt, or to drench our land with blood, but they were animated by intolerance and fanticism, and blinded by an ignorance of spirit of our institutions, the character of our people, and the condition of our land. They thought they might safely indulge their passions, and concluded to do so, they would not heed the warnings of our fathers, and did not consider that meddling begets strife, and their passions have brought our natural results.

They were impelled to spurn all measures of compromise. Step by step they have marched on to results from which at the outset they would have shrunk with horror; and even when war has desolated our land, has laid its heavy burdens upon labor, and when bankruptcy and ruin overhang us, they will not have the Union restored except upon conditions unknown to our Constitution.

They will not let the shedding of blood cease even for a little time, to see if christian charity or the wisdom of statesmanship may not work out a method to save our country.

The Chicago Convention Yesterday. Yesterday, in the Chicago Convention, the following resolutions were offered by Governor Hunt (N. Y ), and referred to the committee on resolutions:

Resolved, That in the future, as in the past. we will adhere with unswerving fidelity to the Union and the Constitution, and insist on maintaining our National unity as the only solid foundation of our strength, security and happiness as a people, and as the framework of Government conductve to the welfare and prosperity of all the States, both Northern and Southern, and with a view to terminate the restore the blessings of pending could peace, we are in favor of an armistice and earnest and honorable efforts to adjust the terms of settlement and union on the basis of the Constitution of the United States, and for a final solution of all difficulties, we would recommend a Convention of the States to review the Constitution and adopt such amendments and modifications as seem necessary to more fully insure to each State the enjoyment of all its rights and constitutional control of its domestic concerns according to the original intent and purpose of the Federal compact.

Mr. Long (Ohio) offered the following: Resolved, That a committee, to be composed of one member from each State represented in this Convention, to be selected by the respective delegations thereof, be appointed, for the purpose of proceeding forthwith to the city of Washington, on behalf of this Convention and people, to ask Mr. Lincoln to suspend the operation of the pending draft for 500,000 men until the people shall have an opportunity, through the ballot-box, in a full election, uniniluenced in any manner by military orders or military interference, of deciding the question now fairly presented to them of peace or war at the approaching election in November, and that said Committee be and are hereby instructed to urge upon Mr. Lincoln, by whatever argument they can employ, to stay the flood of fraternal blood, at least so far as the impending draft will continue to augment it, until the people, the source of all power, shall have the opportunity of expressing their will for or against the further prosecution of the war in the choice of candidates for the Presidency.

LOCAL NEWS.

A SPUNKY GIRL .- Yesterday afternoon, quite an excitement took place in front of the depot, caused by a young and handsome girl of about nineteen seizing a hackman by the collar and demanding that he should fork over fitteen dollars. It appears that the young lady and her sister came to the city last week to see a wounded relative at Lincoln Hospital, and engaged the hackman to take them there, for which he charged five dollars: and she tendered a twenty dollar bill, which he went off with, promising to return the change, but he failed to do so. Yesterday the ladies were about to leave the city, when they recognized the delinquent backman, and the eldest seized him. The jehu attempted to get away at first, but seeing that she was a determined girl he begged to be allowed to go off and get the money; but she held him fast until efficer Padget came up, and he went with the hackman, who soon raised the funds, which the officer paid the girl.

FIGHT AT A BALL.-Last night the colored fancy had a ball at Sam Ireland's ranche, on B, street between Tenth and Eleventh, and some of the females got into a quarrel. Officer Simonds went to separate them, and was interred with by Phillip Maharty, colored. Maharty was arrested and taken to the station house. Afterwards the females got into a row again, and Buna Prince, Susannah Johnson, and Ellen Stephenson were arrested by officers Barclay and Markwood. Judge Day appeared as their counsel before Justice Clayton, but the Justice fined Maharty $5.00, and Susannah Johnson $2.00; the other women were dismissed. Sergeant Tait notified the colored fancy present at the trial, that he intended to report that place to the military authorities, and have it permanently closed, as it was getting to be as bad as it was last winter.

DISMISSED .- Jennie West, who was committed Saturday for a further hearing before Justice Hollingshead, on a charge of robbing a soldier of $300, was called for a hearing yesterday. It appeared by the testimony that the accused and the soldier parted company at a restaurant near the Park, 7th street, about midnight. After she left the soldier showed his pocket-book in the restaurant and added money he obtained from the landlord to that in the book, showing that if robbed it was after the accused left him. Justice Hollingshead immediately dismissed the case.

FATAL ACCIDENT .- Yesterday afternoon, as train No. 4 north, (leaving here at 3 p. m.,) was on the way out, the rear brakesman, Michael Fenton, a young man residing in Baltimore, was killed near Mill's sidling. It is supposed that when the train was about passing under the bridge near that place, he looked out, and projected his head too far, when it was struck by one of the timbers of the bridge, mashing his head and killing him instantly. His body was brought to the city and last evening it was placed in a coffin and forwarded to Baltimore FIGHT IN PRATHER'S ALLEY.-The colored residents of Prather's alley had a free fight yesterday, all originating from the charge of one Cage Terrill, who asserted that two colored servants of General Hooker's were teamsters. which made them very indignant, and the result was loud talk and blows, in which the women participated. Officers Eckloff, Crown, and Smith arrested ten women and two men, the other men engaged in the melee having escaped. Terrill was held to bail for court, and the others were fined.

A VILLAINOUS CASE .- Sergeant Johnson, of the Second Precinct, reported this morning that a girl, named Margaret Kennedy, was found in a shanty in the Second Police Precinct, where she had been left by a woman named Barry. The girl is fourteen years of age, was kept and used as a prostitute by Mrs. Barry until she was so diseased as to be unable to walk or help herself. Barry then moved, and left her in the shanty to die. Sergeant Johnson took the child and had her removed to the Almshouse.

creating a nuisance, that attracted considerable attention. The warrant was issued against C. B. Jewell, proprietor of the Soap factory, on Green near Bridge street, and the charge was boiling or rendering spoiled meats, rancid tallow, or rancid grease of some kind." It appeared from the evidence, that the stench arising from the rendering of rancid materials, was so obnoxious that many of the neighbors could not remain in their houses. The Justice fined Mr Jewell $20 and costs, and Mr. Jewell immediately appealed to court. This is the third time that Jewell has been fined for creating a nuisance by the process of rendering tallow, and appealed upon each case. In the two former cases, if we are correctly informed, the appeals were sustained by default of the appellant. In this it is hoped that the court may decide on all the facts.
